

Founder's Award

The Founder's Award, named in honor of the League's founders, Allan Steinberg and Father Clyde Crews has been presented since 1990 to an individual who epitomizes lifetime achievement and dedication to the cause of preservation awareness, education, and community involvement which has enriched the metro area.

2010 Founders Award

Ed Hamilton receiving the 2010 Founders' Award on January 17, 2010 at the Presentation Academy's Arts & Athletics Center.

Ed Hamilton's sculpture's of famous people and events help educate today's generation, as well as future generations, as to the important achievements of those who have gone before us. Ed's artistry allow us to touch the past and keep their historic contributions alive. Louisville is indeed fortunate to have such a talented gifted individual among us and the League is proud to present Ed Hamilton with our Founder's Award.

For List of Founder's Award recipients since 1990:

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 2009 Bill & Carol Butler | 1998 Emilie Strong Smith |
| 2008 Charles 'Chuck' Parrish | 1997 Mark Thompson |
| 2007 David Jones, Sr. | 1996 Mae Salyers |
| 2006 Bill Weyland | 1995 Ann Hasset |
| 2005 Clest Lanier | 1994 John and Joellen Johnston |
| 2004 Mary Jean Kinsman | 1993 Sam Thomas |
| 2003 Owsley Brown Frazier | 1992 George Yater |
| 2002 Grady Clay | 1991 Tom Owen |
| 2001 David Armstrong | 1990 Sister Mary Michael Creamer |
| 2000 Steve Wiser | |
| 1999 Edie Bingham | |