

New Landmark Awards

This recognition is for new buildings that fit well into their contextual environment. The first awards were presented in 2005.

Scroll down this page for all of the award winners since 2005.

2010

New Firehouses: Clifton-Butchertown and Portland
Chief Frederick accepting the award

Westport Village

Left: Colin Underhill & Todd Underhill

Presentation Academy Arts & Athletics Center

Left: Gil Stein (Architect); Sr. Chris Beckett (Principal); and Pat Noonan (Whittenberg Contractors)

Newburg Library

Left: Chandra Gordon of Library Foundation

Scroll down this page for all of the award winners since 2005.

2009

Portland – Shippingport Bridge

Broadway and Shelby Building

Fleur de Lis on East Main Street

2008

IMAAGES Building (Lagrange Road near Shelbyville Road)

Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, BETA BETA Chapter (Third Street near University of Louisville campus)

Mercy Academy (5801 Fegenbush Lane)

Gallery Lofts (East Jefferson and Hancock Streets)

2007

Dearing House (Park Boundary Road near Big Rock in Cherokee Park)

Vogue Center (Lexington Road and Frankfort Avenue)

University of Louisville Library expansion (Belknap campus)

2006

Muhammad Ali Center

Waterfront Park Place

Galt House Conservatory

University of Louisville Sports Park

2005

Bardstown Eastern Building (Owner: Design Plus Architects)

Underwriters Safety and Claim Building (Owner: Underwriters Safety and Claim)

614 W. Main Street (Owner: Fenley Development)

Omni Medical Center at 28th and Virginia (Owner: Dr. Eugene Giles, Sr.)

Collegiate School's New Building (Owner: Louisville Collegiate School)